GREETINGS

Dear Friend,

We are excited to present the Jewish happenings from the second quarter of 2022. For every large event and small event there are individuals impacted and lives changed. This is what we focus on, In truth we may never know the impact of one act of kindness, a smile, or an occasion that one was reached out to.

Here is a glimpse of how Chabad is sharing the joys of Judaism with the community with love and acceptance to all,

All of this is possible because of your support and efforts to keep our work going strong.

With Much Appreciation,
Rabbi Yanky and Chanshy Majesky

JLI LECTURE COURSE

HEAR WHAT PEOPLE ARE SAYING ABOUT THE RECENT JLI COURSE
TAUGHT BY RABBI MAJESKY! JOIN US FOR THE NEXT JLI COURSE!

"This has been a fantastic series, I'm so glad I got a chance to learn from you! I was raised in a Catholic environment and learning the Jewish perspective has been really enlightening, especially as an attorney. I appreciate the effort you put into making the class entertaining and informative. I hope to participate in more of your classes in the future."

– AMANDA

"Thank you for the excellent course, which I enjoyed very much. This was my first time taking an in depth class on Judaism but it will certainly not be my last. I look forward to your next courses."

HEBREW SCHOOL END-OF-YEAR CEREMONY

At the End-of-year ceremony, Chabad Hebrew School families celebrated the year of growth and learning with Aleph Champ awards, an art walk-through gallery and class presentations! After the ceremony children enjoyed the festivities including water activities and Hebrew reading themed treats. This year the students in 2-7th grades learned about the history of the Jewish people living in Israel and the prophets who led them during that time. K-1 learned how to be super heroes by using their G-d given talent to do so many Mitzvahs.

The children excelled in Hebrew reading thanks to their talented and dedicated coaches: Chaya Majesky, Naomi Stricker, Ella Amir, Myles Smith, Coby Bitman, Zoe Carmi and Janelle Jacobson.

CHABAD IS THERE FOR EVERY JEW

FINISHING HIS SENTENCE WITH HOPE

Eric was a young Jewish felon turned good citizen. He straightened out his life, married and settled down to live as a new man. Unfortunately, some of his sentences were unaccounted for and years down the line he was officially wanted. He received a letter one day saying that he owes jail time in Seminole County. He did the moral thing and turned himself in. One of the first contacts he made from the jail was to Rabbi Majesky requesting Jewish books for the prison. There were many books on other faiths but none on Judaism. Eric did his time and after he returned back home to his family he sent a donation to sponsor the kiddush at Nate's Shul in honor of Rabbi Majesky being there for him during that time when he needed strength and inspiration the most.

FINAL OPPORTUNITY FOR A MITZVAH

A local Jewish couple had been living here for a long time and never connected to the Jewish community. We had never met them before but before Passover we arranged for a few student rabbis to visit them. They offered the husband to put on tefillin which he was happy to do. After the initial meeting Rabbi Majesky followed up and arranged to come by to put up a Mezuzah. When he arrived the wife then told Rabbi Majesky that because of the earlier visit her husband was able to put on tefillin for the last time since he passed away shortly after that and how grateful she was for him having that opportunity. At Chabad we get to experience how seemingly small gestures are really the bigger moments. Sometimes bigger than the grandest of events.

COMMUNITY HELPS MAKE A FUNERAL POSSIBLE

David Zion had a cousin who had passed without funds for a proper Jewish burial. With the help of the community we were able to raise part of the funds to help with this holy mitzvah.

PESACH HIGHLIGHTS

PASSOVER MEALS AND SEDER KITS WERE DISTRIBUTED TO THOSE WHO WERE ALONE FOR THE HOLIDAY OR WHO WERE UNABLE TO JOIN THE SEDER. NATE'S SHUL HOSTED A COMMUNITY WIDE SEDER, WHERE SOME OF THE ATTENDEES SAID IF IT WERE NOT FOR THE SEDER IN SHUL, THEY WOULD NOT HAVE GONE TO ONE AT ALL.

“What a special evening we had celebrating Passover at our Synagogue!!! Thank you so much Rabbi Yanky and Chanshy, the seder was perfect, food was so delicious and the kids had a blast! Thanks for inviting us. Next year in Jerusalem!” - Cara

INVOCATION CEREMONY

The City of Longwood recently invited Rabbi Yanky to give the invocation before one of their meetings! Rabbi Yanky was honored to have the opportunity to speak in front of city officials and show them the beauty of Judaism!

JNET

Today more than ever, it's easily accessible to gain insight and knowledge in Judaism. Jnet offers free one-on-one study on any topic of your choice. Some of the community members who take advantage of this great program are Happy Frank who is studying Tanya; Susan Lewin who is studying Jewish calendar, Parsha, and daily rituals; David Bloomberg who is studying Jewish law, and Bryan Lazerow who just joined and will be studying Jewish law.

CHABAD CARES LAUNCH

CHABAD LAUNCHED A NEW INITIATIVE CALLED "CHABAD CARES" WHERE MEMBERS OF THE COMMUNITY CAN VOLUNTEER THEIR TIME TO VISIT LOCAL HOSPITALS AND UPLIFT THE JEWISH PATIENTS

TO VOLUNTEER OR ARRANGE A VISIT FOR A COMMUNITY MEMBER IN THE HOSPITAL,
EMAIL: CHABADCARES@JEWISHNORTHORLANDO.COM

NORTH ORLANDO MINYAN

Nate's Shul is honored to host the only daily minyan from Dr. Phillips to Ormond Beach! The warm feeling and welcoming atmosphere is refreshing! A very special thank you to all those who come regularly!

NEW TEFILLIN FOR SEBASTIAN

Sebastian Wagner recently committed to don tefillin every day. Cteen HQ was raffling off one new pair of high quality tefillin to those making the commitment. Rabbi Majesky encouraged Sebastian to enter the raffle, and he won!

COMMUNITY KINDNESS

Being leaders in the community, we get to see the true kindness of so many on a daily basis. Here are some inspiring moments.

AKIVA ANDERSON
GIFTED A BRAND
NEW PAIR OF TEFILLIN FOR MYLES SMITH

A LOCAL JEWISH MAN PASSED AWAY WITHOUT MANY FRIENDS OR FAMILY. THE LOVE THAT WE WITNESSED THAT DAY WAS AWE-INSPIRING. QUITE A FEW PEOPLE MADE THE DRIVE IN THE MIDDLE OF A WORK DAY TO THE FUNERAL TO DO A KINDNESS FOR A MAN THEY NEVER MET ENDURING THAT KADDISH WOULD BE SAID.

MOMO KRUDO, ALONG WITH HIS SON AND AN EMPLOYEE, SET UP A FULL SIZE TENT IN THE BACK OF THE SHUL SO WE COULD ENJOY THE SHAVUOS KIDDUSH IN THE SHADE.

LISA WESTON AND LISA EICHENBLATT CAME TO NATE'S SHUL A DAY BEFORE PESACH TO SETUP THE CHINA AND CENTERPIECES FOR THE COMMUNITY SEDER
